RAISE YOUR PROFILE IN THE POINT-OF-CARE DIAGNOSTIC COMMUNITY

The Swiss Symposium in Point-of-Care Diagnostics is a one day event consisting of presentations by selected speakers from industry, academia and medicine to discuss about :

- how to translate newest innovations into next generation POC diagnostic products
- how to overcome obstacles associated with clinical adoption of POC diagnostic products

VENUE

26 October 2023 - Campus ENERGYPOLIS
Rue de l'Industrie 23 | Sion | Switzerland

Use your presence at the symposium to raise your profile.

The Swiss Symposium in Point-of-Care Diagnostics 2023 brings together leaders from industry, medicine and academia to share their experiences and explore collaboration possibilities, with the aim of initiating new projects, exploiting new technologies and developing new products.
